The GD on aug 2nd was:

you are each given a role to play..u have to justify why yours is best suited to the question and final reach a general consensus..tips: be cool..

listen carefully..

n talk..tlak what u want but do say something..

don't be too aggressive nor too submissive n yes..don't address any one member only.

out of 800 students, 63 of us got thru written and 17 of us from these 63 got thru GD..yeah!i cracked the GD.

then comes the interview.

prepare tech guys..they ask a lot of branch ques..n if you have mentioned any languages in your resume be well prepared.

be preapred to answer ques from A to Z of whatever u have written in your CV.

they also gave us puzzles like:

3 switches in the bottom floor, 3 bulbs on top floor..u can go upstairs only once.find out which switch is for which bulb.

then , out of a group of 10 matchboxes..each with 10 matchsticks of 10 gms. if one weighs 9 gms..how will u find it in minimum no. of weighings..

be confidant and preapre ques like why sbhould we take u?

what are ur assets,hobbies,the last book that read , the last film that u saw ..name of characters in that film etc..

good luck,nikky.
